THE AUSTRALIAN SOCIAL POLICY ASSOCIATION

(ASPA) is a non-profit organisation and professional association of social policy researchers, educators, practitioners and policy-makers. It promotes debate and increased understanding of social policy in Australia and productive collaborations between those working and researching in social policy locally, in the Asia-Pacific region and internationally.

The President of the Association is Professor Matthew Gray, Director of the ANU Centre for Social Research Methods, The Australian National University.

The Association's key objectives are to:

- support and foster research, practice and education in social policy in the university, non-government and government sectors
- create a forum for the exchange of information and ideas about social policy in national and international contexts
- facilitate and encourage higher degree research training in social policy
- establish links with other Australian and international organisations that have an interest in social policy issues.

The Association provides its members with access to:

- publications
- seminars
- workshops and conferences
- cross-sectoral networking opportunities
- higher degree research forums and networks

ASPA seeks to support the community of social policy researchers, policy makers and analysts, practitioners, advocates and consultants, in their efforts to understand and contribute to the promotion of human well-being.

AUSTRALIAN JOURNAL OF SOCIAL ISSUES

As part of your membership, you receive full online access to the AUSTRALIAN JOURNAL OF SOCIAL ISSUES, which is published by the Australian Social Policy Association to provide an inter-disciplinary forum for debate on significant social policy issues. It is a fully peer reviewed journal dealing with questions of social justice as most broadly defined. Articles discuss particular social issues, review conceptual problems, present empirical studies and debate policy alternatives. The journal is editorially independent of the Association and the universities to which editors and contributors are affiliated.

The co-editors of the Journal are Dr Deirdre Howard-Wagner, Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy Research, The Australian National University and A/Prof Ben Edwards, ANU Centre for Social Research Methods, the Australian National University. Publication of the journal is now managed by Wiley and it can be accessed via their online library:
